

Our colleagues from Lithuania, we contacted via Gmail and colleagues from Bulgaria via Facebook. Then we talked further with them through Facebook. Unfortunately, we did not create the video, because members of our group were unable to agree on the time and place, which is a shame. Questions from our colleagues from other countries, we have between us four categorized, so everyone went to the same number of questions. Videoconferencing I (Thomas Kantor) did not participate, but I had a video conference between only four people (me, Tomáš Smejkal, Vasil Nakov and Domantas Gigčys).
