

Good evening,

excuse me for sending this report late, I forgot about, apologise. Lithuanians added us first, there's good communication with them. We made a group on Facebook. It was little bit harder to add Bulgarians, because they have two classes in one group (18 people), but we made it. There's good communication from both sides. Their english is decent. They are very talkative and they like to talk almost about everything. We may have Skype call soon. We all are really looking forward to do this.

Have a nice evening, group
